Major requirements for students who start at OSU AU22 and After.

Students choosing a major in West European Studies are interested in careers in business, local, state and federal government, and non-profit. This major requires completion of a minimum of two years of language study. Coursework completed at OSU or abroad and/or appropriate placement test results can document this.

To fulfill the foreign language requirement students have three options: complete two years (4 semesters) of a single language, complete a foreign language minor or complete a second major in a language.

For those opting to complete two years in a single language at OSU, after completing 1101, 1102, 1103, you must complete one advanced language course in that language (see list on right).

FRENCH 2101.01
GERMAN 2101
ITALIAN 2102
MODERN GREEK 4001
PORTUGUESE 3401
SPANISH 2202.01

In addition to the language requirement, students must complete one of the following minors:

- Agribusiness: minimum 12 hours (4-5 classes)
Prerequisite: AEDECON 2001 or (Econ 2001.01 or 2001.02)
- Business: 15 hours (5 classes)
