

JOURNAL OF POLITICS AND INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS CALL FOR PAPERS

PAPER SUBMISSIONS FOR THE SPRING 2019 JOURNAL ARE BEING ACCEPTED BEGINNING JANUARY 1st. PLEASE VISIT <http://u.osu.edu/jpia/> FOR SUBMISSION INFORMATION.

The Journal of Politics and International Affairs (JPPIA) was created at Ohio State in 2006. The journal became inactive for a few years, but in 2011 a group of Ohio State students brought the journal back to life. Since 2011, the journal has been a valuable resource for undergraduate researchers, giving students the opportunity to have their papers published for a wider audience beyond the classroom.

The journal accepts a wide variety of paper submissions that can come from a variety of fields, including political science, public policy, economics, international studies, sociology and more.

Along with accepting submissions for the journal, we also serve as an organization that provides undergraduate students the opportunity to participate in the inner workings of the journal. This includes peer-reviewing and editing submissions, designing the layout of the journal and managing a staff of student editors.
