

Careers in Washington

Getting from OSU to DC

Interested in a career in Washington, D.C.? You have two exciting opportunities to hear from young Ohio State alumni who have successfully started careers in Washington on Monday, September 16th! Learn more about the events and panelists below:

Lunch & Learn: Navigating a Career in Washington, DC After Graduation

Noon in Page Hall, room 130 (LEC)

Join us for a lunch and learn with featured Ohio State alumni who will discuss their move to DC after Ohio State and start of their professional careers. Attendees will have the opportunity to ask questions in an informal setting and make connections with alumni. Lunch provided.

RSVP required

Our featured alumni will be visiting campus on Monday, September 16th only, so please take this unique opportunity to connect with fellow Buckeyes and learn about their career paths in DC!

Mikayla Bodey, '17

Mikayla currently serves as a Senior Legislative Assistant in the U.S. House of Representatives. After graduation, she moved to DC to join the legislative team of Senator Claire McCaskill. An alumna of WAIP, Mikayla interned with the U.S. Senate Committee on Agriculture, Nutrition, and Forestry. At Ohio State, she majored in Public Affairs with a minor in Agriculture and Food Policy.

OSU to DC: Careers in Washington Panel Discussion

6 p.m. in Page Hall, room 130 (LEC)

Join us for a panel discussion, featuring two Ohio State alumni who started their careers in Washington, DC and will speak about their early success and advice to young, aspiring public servants. Panel moderated by alumni of the John Glenn College Washington Academic Internship Program (WAIP). Pizza provided.

RSVP required

Abby Vesoulis, '18

Abby is a reporter at TIME Magazine's Washington D.C. Bureau. There, she writes articles on politics and policy, and fact-checks magazine cover stories. While in WAIP, she interned for NBC Washington's digital team in the Fall of 2017. At Ohio State, she majored in journalism and political science. Abby was a student research assistant, a teacher's assistant, and a WOSU news intern; she was also the special projects editor at OSU's student newspaper, the Lantern.
