

nal Affairs and Communications, and the Council of Local Authorities for International Relations.

Peace Corps

<http://www.peacecorps.gov/>

The Peace Corps traces its roots and mission to 1960, when then Senator John F. Kennedy challenged students at the University of Michigan to serve their country in the cause of peace by living and working in developing countries. From that inspiration grew an agency of the federal government devoted to world peace and friendship.

Princeton in Asia

<http://piaweb.princeton.edu/>

Mission Statement: “To promote good will and understanding and to facilitate in every way the free interchange of the best ideals in the civilizations of both East and West.”

Princeton-in-Asia (PiA) provides transformative, service-oriented experiences for talented graduates and serves the needs of Asia as determined by our Asian partners. Over the last century, the organization has achieved this goal by providing talented young people with various opportunities to live and work in Asia. PiA's Home Office is located on the Princeton University campus. Princeton-in-Asia is a private, independent, non-profit organization 501(c)(3) affiliated with Princeton University.

Spain, Ministry of Education, Culture & Language Assistantships

<http://www.educacion.gob.es/eeuu/convocatorias-programas/convocatorias-eeuu/auxiliares-conversacion-eeuu.html>

Grantees will work as English language assistant teachers, under the supervision and guidance of a classroom teacher in K-12 schools and Escuelas Oficiales de Idiomas (state-run language schools) throughout Spain. Grantees will teach 12 to 16 periods per week. The assistant and the classroom teacher (or the school representatives) may agree upon other activities and responsibilities in which they should be involved, including attending faculty meetings, making class presentations and participating in extra-curricular activities such as workshops, field trips, student exchanges, music and theater performances, or sports events.

United States Department of State

<http://www.state.gov/m/a/os/c16899.htm>

The international schools affiliated with the Department of State are independent, non-government institutions. Since they are not controlled by the U.S. government nor do they operate under any official administrative jurisditional umbrella, they hire teachers and staff directly, establishing their own qualification standards and application procedures. Salary levels and benefit packages vary from school to school.

Westgate Corporation, Teach in Japan

<http://www.westgate.co.jp/application/>

Westgate Corporation was founded in 1983 to provide English language instruction programs for corporations, residents, and public schools of Gotemba, Shizuoka, Japan. Westgate has since provided English language training for more than thirty major Japanese and international corporations. Westgate Young Learners Program is looking for individuals who are highly motivated to teach in a private elementary/primary school. Those who are interested in having a rewarding overseas experience and enhancing their teaching skills can apply for this unique opportunity.

World Teach

<http://www.worldteach.org/index.html>

As a World Teach volunteer teacher you will witness firsthand the challenges and rewards of education in a developing country. You will share the skills and knowledge gained through your education and life experience with students who have not had the same advantages, and you will make a concrete and lasting difference in their lives.

YMCA Go Global

<http://www.ymcanyc.org/association/pages/international-services>

YMCA Go Global is a voluntary service and capacity-building program that places young Americans at YMCAs and community organizations around the world. Go Global volunteers fully immerse themselves in the culture of their host countries and assist in developing programs that build strong kids, strong families and strong communities.

Teach Abroad Opportunities

For International Studies majors

INTERNATIONAL STUDIES

33 Townshend Hall
1885 Neil Avenue
Columbus, OH 43210-1222 USA
Phone: (614) 292-9657
Fax: (614) 688-3020
internationalstudies.osu.edu

This pamphlet is part of the World of Work career series publications. May, 2013.

Teaching Opportunities

Around the World

Teaching abroad after graduation is one way to transition to the world of work which benefits not only yourself but others. Service to others makes the world a better place.

Listed on this brochure are links to various teach abroad programs. Some are funded by government agencies (both the U.S. government and the government of the host country), some are non-profit organizations whose mission is to promote cultural diplomacy through the exchange of volunteers. Others are for-profit organizations. Students should research all opportunities thoroughly. These links are offered as a tool to find teaching abroad opportunities, not an endorsement of these agencies.

GET EXPERIENCE

The first step in making yourself marketable for teaching English abroad is to get experience. Consider volunteering for one of the agencies below. These agencies pair you with an international or new immigrant in a tutoring role.

English Conversation Partners, OSU
<http://128.146.84.19/life-at-ohio-state/getting-involved/english-conversation.html>

Spoken English Program, OSU
<http://esl.ehe.osu.edu/programs/spoken-english-program/>

Columbus Literacy Council
www.columbusliteracy.org

LIST OF AGENCIES

Aclipse
<http://www.aclipse.net/>

Aclipse is dedicated to connecting enthusiastic college grads with the best teaching jobs in Asia. We'll help you uncover the right job for you, and assist you every step of the way on your next great adventure. Go ahead, stay awhile; and discover all that a job teaching in Asia has to offer.

AEON Corporation of Japan
<http://www.aeonet.com/>

For more than three decades, the AEON Corporation of Japan has been an innovator in the field of English education, offering exceptional classroom and internet opportunities to study and master the language. If you are ready for a challenging and rewarding opportunity to live and work in Japan, we invite you to apply for a position as an English teacher with the AEON Corporation of Japan.

Asia Council
<http://www.asiacouncil.org/>

You're wondering whether you should go to China and teach and, if you go, how you will grow and change and what benefits you will derive. Time in China will give you the opportunity to teach some bright and dedicated students. Founded in 1977, the Colorado China Council (CCC) is a not-for-profit, non-political, educational outreach organization dedicated to developing programs to deepen the American public's understanding and appreciation of China's history, culture and contemporary life. Chinese language is not a prerequisite. Please note that we can ONLY accept people into the program who are currently living in North America

Bridges for Education
<http://www.bridges4edu.org/index.php>

Bridges for Education was founded in 1994 in response to the increasing need for educational assistance in Central and Eastern Europe. It is a New York State incorporated, not for profit, educational organization and is approved to receive tax deductible donations under federal code 501 (c)(3). It is not a religious or ethnic organization. All volunteer teachers are recruited without regard to their ethnic, religious or racial backgrounds.

Central European Teaching Program
<http://www.cetp.info/>

CETP exists to benefit young people in the formerly socialist countries of Central Europe by providing public schools in the region with native-speaking English teachers.

Council on International Educational Exchange
<http://www.ciee.org>

Work overseas and teach English abroad in Chile, China, South Korea, Spain, or Thailand with CIEE. Change the lives of yourself and your students. Connect with local communities in ways no traveler can. In countries all over the world live people with a great desire to learn the English language - and to absorb American culture. Be part of this essential historical and cultural exchange as you teach English to your students by sharing your culture: share stories about your family, your work, and your interests alongside vocabulary and verb conjugation. Whether you are a recent graduate, an experienced teacher, or a professional ready for a change, CIEE is devoted to increasing opportunities for you to teach English overseas - and for students abroad to learn.

Cross-Cultural Solutions
<http://www.crossculturalsolutions.org/>

Behind our commitment to international volunteer work is the philosophy that provides the focus for our organization. This philosophy consists of a vision, a mission by which we can achieve that vision, and a set of core values that define how we approach everything we do: Our Vision is of a world where people value cultures different from their own, are aware of global issues, and are empowered to effect positive change.

Dave's ESL Café
<http://www.eslcafe.com/>
Job posting site with hundreds of positions around the world. Also links and information about ESL certification programs.

French Ministry Teaching Assistantship
<http://highereducation.frenchculture.org/teach-in-france>

Teach English in France! The French Ministry of Education and the Cultural Services at the Embassy of France offer approximately 1,500 teaching assistant positions in French primary and secondary schools as well as in various French teaching colleges—the "Instituts universitaires de formation des maîtres (IUFM)". This is a truly unique opportunity for young American citizens to not only gain valuable teaching experience but also spend between 6-9 months in France or in one of its overseas departments ("DOM"). It thus facilitates the mastery of the French language through linguistic immersion while allowing, at the same time, for a privileged insight into contemporary France.

Fulbright Program
<http://us.fulbrightonline.org>

Is the largest U.S. international exchange program offering opportunities for students, scholars, and professionals to undertake international graduate study, advanced research, university teaching, and teaching in elementary and secondary schools worldwide. Established in 1946, the Fulbright Program aims to increase mutual understanding between the peoples of the United States and other countries, through the exchange of persons, knowledge, and skills

Hess Educational Organization
<http://www.hess.com.tw/en/>

If you're looking for an opportunity to teach English in Taiwan, we are looking for candidates who are patient, flexible, enthusiastic, energetic and personable.

Insight Nepal
<http://www.insightnepal.org.np/>
Nepal is a South Asian country with a rich cultural heritage.

Situated in the lap of the central Himalaya, Nepal is a land of ancient history, colorful cultures and people of warm hospitality. Insight Nepal believes that serving others is one of the most worthwhile human endeavors. The main objective of the program is to provide opportunities to those who are keenly interested in gaining a cultural experience by contributing their time and skills to benefit worthwhile community service groups throughout the Country.

International Cultural Youth Exchange
<http://www.icye.org/>

ICYE is an international non-profit youth exchange organization promoting youth mobility, intercultural learning and international voluntary service. ICYE organises long and short-term exchanges combining home stays with voluntary service in more than 34 countries around the world.

International Foundation for Education & Self-Help
<http://www.ifesh.org/>

Founded in 1981, IFESH helps improve the lives of people in sub-Saharan Africa by addressing the problems of poverty and illiteracy. Through self-help programs, we specialize in education systems, health, community development and conflict mitigation. The work of IFESH supports the efforts of the eight United Nations Millennium Development Goals, particularly the eradication of poverty and hunger, achieving universal education, combating HIV/AIDS, promoting gender equality and maternal health.

International School Services
<http://www.iss.edu/>

Since 1955, ISS has grown into a dynamic educational force in the overseas community. A nonprofit corporation dedicated to excellence for children attending overseas schools worldwide, ISS is the world's leader in providing a comprehensive range of quality educational services for schools, educators, families and corporations. We invite you to explore the rich and diverse expertise we offer through specialized service areas.

Japan Exchange and Teaching (JET) Programme
<http://www.jetprogramme.org/>

The Japan Exchange and Teaching (JET) Programme invites university graduates from overseas to participate in international exchange and foreign language education throughout Japan. The programme offers university graduates the opportunity to serve in local government organizations as well as public and private primary, junior high and senior high schools. The JET Programme is conducted under the auspices of local governments in Japan in cooperation with the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, the Ministry of Education, Culture Sports, Science and Technology (MEXT), the Ministry of Inter-